

THE CITY LIBRARY TO HOST
STRANGERS IN PARADISE WRITER/ARTIST TERRY MOORE

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH — Night Flight Comics in cooperation with The City Library is pleased to announce award winning creator/writer/artist for Strangers In Paradise Terry Moore. Artist reading, Q&A and autograph session will take place in the auditorium and urban room Friday, September 8th 2006 at 4:00 p.m.

Terry Moore began writing and drawing his award winning comic book series, Strangers In Paradise, in 1993. Since then he has produced over ninety issues of the larger than life saga featuring Francine, Katchoo and the amazing cast of friends and lovers in their lives. Strangers In Paradise is published under Moore's own imprint, Abstract Studio and is one of the most successful independently published books in the comics industry.

A standout in the comic book industry since he began creating Strangers In Paradise, Terry Moore's writing and art are favorites among fans. During his career, Moore has written and drawn mainstream titles such as Birds of Prey for DC Comics, Wildstorm's Gen 13, Ultimate Team-Up for Marvel, and most recently, Darkness-Vampirella for Top Cow.

Strangers In Paradise is available in eight languages and is near the top of the charts for graphic novel sales worldwide with over 1,000,000 copies sold. Celebrating thirteen years of Strangers In Paradise in 2006 Moore continues to enthrall readers with the adventures of Francine and Katchoo.

PRAISE FOR STRANGERS IN PARADISE...

"Terry's managed to take the traditional love triangle and keep the story vital and involving for over a hundred issues, via two different companies, maybe three. When people say romance comics are dead, I shove an SIP graphic novel into their hands."

- Kevin Smith

"What most people don't know about love and relationships would fill a book. Strangers In Paradise is that book."

- Neil Gaiman

"Moore's attention to detail in characterization makes Katchoo and the gang jump off the page. A sophisticated must-read..."
